

WEEKLY REPORT
05/27/12-06/02/12

On Wednesday, May 30th, Chief Tiernan, Lt Hargrove, and members of the Traffic Bureau met with Mr. Jin Pan and several of his colleagues. The meeting discussed the status of the investigation into the fatal hit and run collision which resulted in death of Helen Yang, Mr. Pan's mother. The owner of the Main Tower Apartment complex added $2,500 to the previous $10,000 reward offered by the family. Mr. Pan's family met with members of the media to generate additional media coverage of the case which hopefully will lead to additional information about the accident being forwarded to the police.

Newark Day on Saturday, June 2nd was very successful from the police department's perspective. The crowd was very family oriented and orderly. The vendors broke down their displays promptly at 5:00 p.m., and traffic on Main Street was open to the public in just under one hour.

The Delaware State Police has notified Chief Tiernan that Newark Police recruit William Anderson is performing well at the police academy and progressing toward graduation.

On Wednesday, June 6th, Carol Houck, Chief Tiernan, Lt Hargrove, and Animal Control Officer Vickers met with a resident concerning a chronic feral cat problem. The police department is looking into purchasing additional equipment that may be used to capture animals.

On Friday, June 8th, Lieutenant Kevin Feeney will graduate from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy. Other graduates will include police officers from across the United States and numerous foreign countries.

On Tuesday, June 12th, the Christina School District will honor Corporal Darryl Saunders at its district school board meeting held at Bayard Middle School. The board will be honoring Cpl. Saunders for his heroic efforts and outstanding dedication to the students of Newark High School. Last month, Cpl. Saunders and the high school nurse resituated and saved the life of a student who suffered a heart attack.
