

WEEKLY REPORT
02/22/15-02/28/15

On February 27th, following an extensive investigation into the February 16th Strong-Arm Robbery of the Radio Shack, NPD officers conducted a search warrant at a home in Newark. During the search warrant detectives located and arrested three suspects and recovered multiple items linking the trio to the crime. Two of the suspects were committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution and the third, a juvenile, was committed to the New Castle County Detention Center.

On February 27th, Cpl. Patrick Craig, Cpl. William Smith and Detective Daniel Bystricky were recognized at the New Castle County Paramedics 2015 Sudden Cardiac Arrest Survivors Reunion. All three officers were honored by the NCC Paramedics for their life saving efforts during 2014.

On Sunday, March 1st newly appointed K9 officer, Cpl. Adam Stevens along with Sgt. Chris Jones, travelled to Bullocks K9 Facility in Greenville, NC where they selected NPD's newest police K9, Peti (Peety). K9 Peti, a 20 month old German Shepard from the Czech Republic, is described by Sgt. Jones as energetic, well-tempered and eager to work. K9 Peti and Cpl. Stevens will begin training with the Delaware State Police K9 Unit in April.

On March 6th, Cpl. James Spadola and Cpl. William Smith will attend a job fair at Rowan College. Job fairs are an essential and invaluable part of NPD's recruitment process. Our most recent hire, Michael Hatton, became interested in NPD after meeting NPD officers at a Dover Air Force Base job fair last year.

On March 6th, Cpl. James Marconi, of the Special Operations Unit, will conduct a new student orientation to members of the English Language Institute. This orientation will include crime prevention strategies, personal safety tips, pedestrian safety and an introduction to American law enforcement practices.
