

WEEKLY REPORT

On December 20th Newark Police Officers, assisted by Aetna Hose, Hook & Ladder company delivered gifts to deserving children in several Newark neighborhoods. This year marked the 20th anniversary of the NPD Toys for Tots operation and was, once again, very well received by the communities visited.

On December 27th, Newark PD's two newest police recruits began their police academy training at the New Castle County Police Academy. They will spend the next six months at the academy learning police procedures and protocol before starting a three month field training program.

The Special Operations Unit continued their retail theft/shoplifting enforcement detail coinciding with the holiday season. Since November 30th, the unit has made 49 arrests on a variety of charges including shoplifting, theft, resisting arrest, drug offenses and others. The unit will continue their operation into the new year.
